Deputation of Government servant under rule 62 of the Karnataka Civil Services Rules—Relaxation of certain provisions relating to—

In notification No. FD 30 SRS 77 dated 27th July 1978, revised provisions have been made regulating the deputation of Government servants for courses of study or training. In the course of application of these provisions certain difficulties have been experienced and therefore it is considered necessary to remove these difficulties by permitting relaxation of certain provisions. Accordingly, the following orders are issued.

ORDER No. FD 16 SRS 79 BANGALORE, DATED THE 7TH MARCH 1979.

In exercise of the powers conferred by rule 7 of the Karnataka Civil Services Rules, Government are pleased to direct that—

(a) the provisions of rule 4 in Appendix II A to the Karnataka Civil Services Rules, shall not apply to cases of Government servants deputed to undergo (i) training in foundation courses given to direct recruits and (ii) refresher courses of training,

(b) the provisions of rules 7, 9, 10 and 12, shall not apply to Government servants deputed for training at the training institutes run by the State Government, the Government of India or any other State Government.

(2) Government are also pleased to direct that the power to depute Government servants for undergoing training to the District Training Institutes/Administrative Training College, Mysore/Karnataka Government Secretariat Training Institute, Bangalore under rule 62 of the Karnataka Civil Services Rules, shall be exercised by the Head of the Department or any officer of the department empowered in this behalf ; and the officers duly authorised to exercise these powers at present shall continue to exercise the same.

(3) These orders shall be deemed to have come into force with effect from the 3rd August 1978.

By Order and in the name of the Governor of Karnataka,

G. N. HONAVAR,

Under Secretary to Government,
Finance Department. (Expenditure-IV)
